Children should sexualize

at their own goofy, dreamy tempo.
So, Pedophile, you must be sent away. Don't worry. You'll have the internet, and others just like you. The rough trade, also if thus inclined, and have the time to study springs of all behavior, building therein a solid life.

       And when ripe
           to come back,
           you cannot.
